Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (See the instructions.)

Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? To promote, encourage, and advance technological, scientific and industrial higher and secondary education, research and training in Israel and elsewhere All organizations must describe their exempt purpose achievements in a clear and concise manner. State the number of clients served, publications issued, etc. Discuss achievements that are not measurable. (Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) nonexempt charitable trusts must also enter the amount of grants and allocations to others.)	Program Service Expenses (Required for 501(c)(3) and (4) orgs, and 4947(a)(1) trusts, but optional for others.)
a The society engages in charitable, educational and scientific activities to promote technological and industrial research and training in Israel, and to aid the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology, an educational institution in Haifa, Israel. In addition, it engages in such activities at various places in the United States and elsewhere, including, but not limited to, holding scientific conferences and small group meetings. The society receives contributions, gifts, grant bequests, and legacies, and applies the income and principal thereof to such purposes and programs in the United States and abroad which the society's board of directors determines will further the objectives of the society. The activities of the society are conducted through its offices in New York City, and through subsidiary and local chapters throughout the United States. As part of its program services, the society makes financial contributions to the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology, for programs and projects approved by the society's board of directors. Based on these programs, the institute awards scholarships to qualified students for study in scientific and technological fields in Israel and the United States and provide financial assistance to professors at the institute. The society also prepares and distributes educational and scientific publications designed to increase public knowledge and understanding in the United States, both of technological needs and developments in Israel and of the educational and scientific programs at Technion-Israel Institute of Technology in Haifa. (Grants and allocations $ 63,326,542 ) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	63,326,542
