Schedule A Supplemental Information Part IV	The United States Olympic Committee (USOC) is tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(a), as an organization described in IRC Section 501(c)(3) It is recognized as a publicly supported organization under IRC Section 170(b)(1)(a)(vi) The USOC was appointed by Congress as the coordinating body for all Olympic-related athletic activity in the United States Specifically, the USOC oversees all athletic activity in the U S directly relating to international competition, including for sports on the programs of the Olympic Paralympic, Pan American and Parapan American Games The USOC is the National Olympic Committee and National Paralympic Committee for the United States See Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments for description of programs that accomplish the USOC's exempt purpose and mission Based on its programs, the USOC continues to qualify as a publicly supported organization under IRC Section 170(b)(1)(a)(vi) Additional factors evidencing the USOC as publicly supported include the following. For the year ended December 31, 2015, the USOC received 29 00 percent of its total support from public support This significantly exceeds the 10% minimum threshold. For the year ended December 31, 2014, the USOC received 35 45 percent of its total support from public support. The USOC as a federally chartered not-for-profit corporation. In 2015, the organization received no governmental funding. It thus relies on its ability to generate revenue for its operations through contributions from the general public, royalty revenue from the sale of Olympic broadcasting rights and marks rights. The USOC's board of directors is composed of 15 unpaid volunteer individuals and the CEO as an ex-officio, non-voting member. The volunteer board members include six members from the general public, three members selected from those nominated by the National Governing Bodies Council, three members of the International Olympic Committee (currently three at the end of 2015). The USOC operates three training cente

Explanation
The USOC owns several Olympic-themed paintings by a renowned painter, bronze sculptures and Olympic artifacts, which help preserve the history of the Olympic movement in the United States
Income from restricted funds is used to provide grants and support for U.S. Olympic and Paralympic athletes
As required by the uncertain tax position guidance, the Committee recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more-likely-than-not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material effect on the Committee's consolidated financial statements.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	USOC grant funds awarded to National Governing Bodies (NGBs) are agreed upon and administered through a Performance Partnership Agreement (PPA) The approved projects and payment schedule are outlined and agreed upon in the PPA NGBs receive payments from the USOC on a quarterly basis. Prior to releasing funds, NGBs are required to provide a quarterly report outlining the amount of dollars spent on each of the USOC-approved projects. At the end of the year, NGBs are required to provide a final report on each of the USOC-approved projects. The NGBs are then periodically audited by the USOC Audit Division. The Direct Athlete Support Program is also agreed upon and administered though the PPA. The payment schedule for athletes is outlined in the PPA as well and typically the payments are either monthly or quarterly. The NGB submits the athlete designation list and a signed (by the athlete) athlete support designee form before the USOC will begin the process for athlete payments. Prior to payments being made to an athlete, the USOC confirms that the athlete is compliant with anti-doping requirements. Once compliance is confirmed, the athlete will then be paid. There are no reporting requirements for athletes other than maintaining their status in their sport.

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II Also complete this part for any additional information

Return Reference	Explanation Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	First-class or charter travel and travel for companions The CEO may fly business or first class at his discretion on domestic and international flights Managing directors and above may fly business class at their discretion on flights with segments of five hours or more in duration. The USOC has determined that it is sometimes beneficial for the CEO and Board Members to have their spouses accompany them to particular events, such as the Olympic Games. In such cases that expenses are paid by the USOC, the costs associated with the spouses' travel are evaluated for business purpose. Those determined not to be necessary business expenses are reported to the CEO and Board Members as taxable wages or non-employee compensation on either Form W-2 or 1099-MISC.
Part I, Line 7	The compensation practice of the USOC is that base pay plus at-risk bonus is the total cash compensation for all regular full-time and part-time exempt positions. At-risk bonus compensation is based upon a combination of organizational and individual goal attainment. The Compensation Committee of the USOC's board of directors determines the organizational achievement by using a performance screen that identifies and quantifies annual goals and objectives for the organization. One of those goals is meeting the board-approved annual budget. The Compensation Committee of the USOC's board of directors determines the attainment of these goals over the course of the year and, at year end, expresses them as a percentage of the goals. Once that percentage is determined, it is applied across the organization in a consistent formula to eligible employees based upon an individual's overall performance and contributions for the year. Mitchell Poll received a special incentive payment of $167,693 for securing revenue for the 2017-2020 quad. Peter Zeytoonjian received a special incentive payment of $156,864 for securing revenue for the 2017-2020 quad. Michael O'Conor received a special incentive payment of $112,082 for securing revenue for the 2017-2020 quad.

Provide the information required by Part I, lines 30b, 32b, and 33, and whether the organization is reporting in Part I, column (b), the number of contributions, the number of items received, or a combination of both. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Column (b)	The amount in column (b) refers to both contributions and number of contributors
Part I, Line 33	The USOC occasionally receives payment on pledge commitments from donors in the form of publicly traded securities. The USOC records contribution revenue from pledges when the pledge is unconditionally made. As a result, it could be the case that pledge payments via gifts of publicly traded securities are not recorded in current year contribution revenue, as some payments may already have been recognized as contribution revenue in a prior year when the related pledge was made.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	Members of the USOC board who also serve on the International Olympic Committee's board of directors are allocated one vote and all other members are allocated a number of votes equal to the number of members also serving on the International Olympic Committee At the end of 2015, there were three members of the board who also served on the IOC board

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4	In 2015, the USOC amended its bylaws to (1) clarify the purpose of the Compensation Committee to carry out the Board of Directors' overall responsibility relating to compensation, benefits, human capital management and organizational health, (2) add subsection (I) to Section 8.7 requiring members to comply with safe sport policies of the USOC and the independent safe sport organization designated by the USOC to enhance safe sport practices and to investigate and resolve safe sport violations, and (3) add Section 9.12 to exclude decisions concerning safe sport rule violations adjudicated by the independent safe sport entity from the review or complaint procedures in Section 9.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	A completed copy of the USOC Form 990 will be provided to the Audit Committee. The CFO will meet or conduct a conference call with the Audit Committee to discuss any issues or concerns. The CFO will take immediate action to resolve any outstanding issues raised by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will formally approve the completed 990 and the completed copy will then be sent to the USOC board of directors prior to it being filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Iine 12c	The USOC obtains annual certifications from the organization's staff, board of directors, and committee members. The Ethics Officer reviews the completed disclosure statements and provides copies to the chair of the Ethics Committee. The chair of the Ethics Committee has the discretion to share the disclosure statements with the entire Ethics Committee, board of directors and/or CEO. The Ethics Officer and the chair of the Ethics Committee, in some cases in consultation with the entire Ethics Committee, determine in each case whether a conflict exists and so record their decision in connection with each relevant disclosure statement, also indicating any required corrective action (which may include, but is not limited to, prohibiting the person from participation in the organization's deliberations and decisions in an affected transaction)

All Employee Compensation As part of determining the CEO, officer, and key employees' compensation, the USOC uses comparability date from independent salary survey data to present compensation amounts and policies to an independent Compensation Committee and management for approval. The discussions about compensation strategies and key programs are contemporaneously documented, and decisions about compensation and benefits are made by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors in strict accordance with the bylaws of the organization. The USOC specifically performs the following steps in determining compensation of all employees (including officers and key employees) as well as the CEO's compensation package. The USOC has an established salary structure consisting of 40+ overlapping, symmetrical salary ranges for exempt and non-exempt positions. Each range includes a minimum, indpoint and maximum pay level. The salary ranges for exempt developed by blending our compensation philosophy, nationally and regionally available independent salary survey data and economic business conditions data. A job description and pay grade for each job title is established in collaboration of the supervisor of the position and with final approval by human resources. Final determination of the pay grade may also take into account available data regarding salaries paid for similar jobs in the marketplace as well as internal equity considerations. All full-time and part-time regular employees are eligible for annual merit increases based upon performance. The approved merit pool for all employees is approved by the Compensation Committee of the USOC board of directors based on compensation philosophy, nationally available independent salary survey data, economic business conditions data and the recommendations of management. All full-time and part-time regular exempt employees are eligible for at-risk bonus compensation based upon organizational goal attainment as determined by the Compensation Committee of the USOC board o	Return Reference	Explanation
