Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 10		The Form 990 is prepared by CPB's Office of Budget and Finance and reviewed in detail by the CFO and CPB's independent accountants, BDO Seidman, LLP. The CFO reviews the primary components of the Form with CPB's officers prior to filing. Prior to filing, the Form is provided to officers and directors.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		CPB's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct for Employees requires CPB employees to disclose positions held as a director on any outside board, or as manager or employee (including self employment) with any entity other than CPB. Employees must complete a disclosure form annually or when any of the information changes. CPB's Code of Ethics for Directors and Conflicts of Interest Policy for Directors require directors to immediately disclose conflicts of interest regarding any transaction with which the board is involved when the director becomes aware of the transaction. Further, each board and board committee meeting includes an opportunity for directors to disclose any potential conflicts of interest that may arise in the course of the meeting's agenda. Finally, each director is required to certify their compliance with these policies.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		Compensation for the CPB's CEO, COO, CFO, General Counsel and EVP is recommended by the Executive Compensation Committee of the CPB Board of Directors and approved by the full CPB Board of Directors. Management is not represented on the board, members of which are appointed by the President of the United States and confirmed by the U.S. Senate. An annual compensation analysis is prepared by an independent compensation consultant for all Vice president and above positions. The analysis compares compensation from seven independent compensation surveys. Annual performance is evaluated against objectives set at the beginning of the year for each position, other than the CEO. Performance is documented in a written report and the CEO makes compensation recommendations to the Executive Compensation Committee. These recommendations are reviewed by the committee with the assistance of the independent compensation consultant. The evaluation of the CEO is led by the Executive Compensation Committee and the Chair of the Corporate Governance Committee of the board. A detailed report of the accomplishments of the CEO is provided to each member of the board, along with a performance questionnaire. Input from the questionnaires is consolidated by the consultant and reported back to the full board. The CEO's evaluation is conducted by the board in executive session. All proceedings are documented in the form of written minutes of the meeting and compensation is included as a formal resolution of the board for each of these positions. This process is followed on an annual basis. The date of the last such meeting was in November 2009 with revised compensation effective in January 2010.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		CPB maintains copies of its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, Form 990 and Audited Financial Statements at its offices in Washington, DC. These are available to the public upon written request. A summary statement of the organization's financial position is included in its Annual Report, copies of which are mailed to members of the U.S. Congress and the White House and is also available on CPB's website. Form 990 is available upon request.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part IV, line 12 and Part XI, Line 2b	Financial Statement Audit	As required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, CPB's audited financial statements include the accounts of Literary Classics, Inc., a related non-profit entity. That audit resulted in an unqualified opinion. CPB believes that responding "Yes" on the aforementioned lines is appropriate given LCI's negligible contribution to its combined audited financial statements ($116,000 of net assets, $3,000 in revenue and $500 in expenses, representing 0.1% of combined net assets, 0.0006% of combined revenue, and 0.0001% of combined expenses, respectively). A reconciliation of the Change in Net Assets per Form 990 to the audited combined Financial Statements is included in Part XI on Schedule D.
