Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III . . . . . ☐

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Since 1924, The New York Community Trust has built a permanent endowment to support the nonprofit organizations that make our city a vital place, and make it easy for New Yorkers to be philanthropists. With thousands of charitable funds set up by individuals, families and businesses, and an expert staff, we help donors with their giving today and enable their generosity to continue after their lifetimes.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? . . . . . ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? . . . . . ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 144,949,797 including grants of $ 139,910,876) (Revenue $ 0)

The New York Community Trust makes grants in four broad areas: Children, Youth, and Families; Community Development and the Environment; Education, Arts, and Human Justice; and Health and People with Special Needs. We are committed to helping meet basic needs and respond to emerging problems, while sticking with issues over time. We also educate our donor-advisors about City issus and bring together government, nonprofits, and other funders.

In response to the continuing impact of the recession on New Yorkers, we made grants early in 2010 of $7 million to support basic services, such as food, shelter, benefits, and legal services; and to nonprofit consultants to help shore up safety-net providers.

We also made grants totaling $23 million to help strengthen families and young people. Examples included grants to help teen mothers in foster care become nurturing parents and find jobs; train social workers to help clients with financial problems; get chronic substance abusers into longer-term treatment, and restore 31 summer youth programs slated for elimination.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

(Continuation from 4a)

We made $31 million in grants to relieve the chronic shortage of affordable housing, strengthen the local economy, protect the environment, and support workforce development. For example, we made grants to help block associations work with the city to fix neighborhood problems; train immigrant reporters in radio and online journalism; improved the technology capacity of state advocacy groups; address hydro-fracking in the Marcellus Shale region; create a center on energy-efficient lighting for designers and architects; and start a major effort, focused on employers to train and deploy the unemployed and veterans for jobs in health care.

Arts and culture, education, historic preservation, and human justice received $65 million in grants. To name just a few examples, we increased arts programs in high-needs schools; supported joint marketing and mergers of arts groups; advocated to reduce suspensions and arrests in public high schools; helped save historically significant houses of worship; and helped ex-convicts find jobs and housing.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

We spent $22 million in the area of health and people with special needs, including grants to study the treatment of children with bone cancer; bring a program combining learning and exercise to city schools; improve care for people with AIDS; use new technology to improve care and reduce health care costs; and improve case management for frail elders

4d Other program services. (Describe in Schedule O.)

The Trust's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States includes checking every proposed grantee to ensure that it is a recognized charitable organization operated in a responsible manner. Each grantee must meet charitable standards for programmatic, governance and financial soundness.

For grants issued in response to a proposal, The Trust issues a grant letter requiring that the grantee use the grant funds in accordance with the budget included in its proposal and that any funds not used for the approved purpse will revert back to The Trust. The grantee is required to issue a formal report to The Trust providing an accounting of the use of the funds and a narrative describing the outcome of the project. Failure to provide this report will preclude future grants.

For those grants originating from donor advised funds, the grantee is instructed in writing that no one associated with the fund may receive any benefit as a result of the grant and by accepting the check the organization will comply with these instructions.

Part II There were no non-cash grants to governments and organizations in the United States in 2010.

Question 1a) To help offset the high cost of maintaining an apartment in New York City, the Compensation Committee of The Trust has approved a housing allowance for the President of The Trust. This form of compensation was reviewed by an independent compensation consultant who deemed it an appropriate component of the President's compensation, and found that it was reasonable when compared to the amount of housing allowance paid to others in similar positions in New York City. This allowance is included in the President's taxable income.

Question 1a) As part of their responsibilities, the President and the Vice President of Donor Relations are required to entertain donors and potential donors. To provide an appropriate venue for this entertainment, the Board Chairman has approved that each may belong to a social club for which The Trust will reimburse them for dues and business usage. Amounts are reimbursed upon submission of an approved expense report with required supporting documentation. This cost is considered to be a valid business expense and is not included in their taxable income.

Part I, column (b)

The Trust is reporting the number of contributions received.

Part I, line 32b

The Trust does not utilize the services of a third party to solicit any contributions. The Trust does rely on banks to process and sell noncash contributions of publicly traded securities. For gifts of closely held stock or interests in limited partnerships, The Trust utilizes the services of the underlying company or partnership to liquidate the position as quickly as possible.

This is a consolidated return for The New York Community Trust (13-3062214) and Community Funds, Inc. (13-6089923).

Prior to 1980, the above named taxpayers filed separate tax returns.

The Main office for both taxpayers is located at 909 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10022.

Form 990, Part V, line 3b

For the year ending December 31, 2010, the organization has submitted an Application for Extension of Time to file its Form 990-T with the Internal Revenue Service. Certain unrelated business income is generated by the organization's investments, and the information required to prepare and file the Form 990-T will not be provided by the investment managers prior to submission of this Form 990. The Form 990-T will be filed with the Internal Revenue Service prior to the end of the approved extension period.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2

Lorie A. Slutsky and Charlynn Goins serve on the same board of a New York State registered insurance company.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b

The 990 is prepared internally and reviewed by the Controller, CFO and President of the organization. It is also reviewed by an independent public accounting firm who signs the 990 as paid preparer. The CFO reviewed the form with the board of directors at a board meeting prior to filing. The form is filed upon completion of all reviews

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c

All members of the governing board, officers, and senior staff must review the conflict of interest policy and complete a questionnaire concerning compliance on an annual basis. The forms are reviewed by the General Counsel to ensure ongoing compliance, and to determine whether or not a conflict exists. A conflict with respect to a potential transaction is required to be disclosed, and the conflicted staff or board member is excluded from participating in deliberations and decisions concerning the matter.

Name of the organization: The New York Community Trust

Employer identification number: 13-3062214

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a

The President is the top management official of The Trust, and her compensation package is reviewed and decided upon annually by the board of directors, based upon a recommendation from the Compensation Committee comprised of several independent members of the board of directors and chaired by the board chairman. As part of this process the Compensation Committee prepares a written performance appraisal with input from all of the board members. Annually, through the use of various surveys, the Committee compares the President's compensation to that of others in similar positions. Every few years, the Committee engages an independent compensation consultant to evaluate the President's compensation package to determine if the components of the package, as well as the package as a whole, continue to be fair and reasonable. The Committee reports their findings, the overall performance appraisal and their recommendation to the full board of directors in executive session at the last meeting of the year. After review and discussion, the board determines the President's compensation for the next year.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15b

Officers, as well as other employees, receive annual performance appraisals from their immediate supervisor. Salary adjustments must be approved by the president of the organization and will be given, where appropriate, based upon the annual performance review and within budgetary guidelines approved by the board of directors. As part of this process various outside salary surveys are used to assist in determining any adjustments

Form 8868
(Rev. April 2009)
Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return

► File a separate application for each return.

OMB No. 1545-1709

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box . . . . . ► ☑
- If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form).

Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868.

Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed).

A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension—check this box and complete Part I only . . . . . ► ☐

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns.

Electronic Filing (e-file). Generally, you can electronically file Form 8868 if you want a 3-month automatic extension of time to file one of the returns noted below (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T). However, you cannot file Form 8868 electronically if (1) you want the additional (not automatic) 3-month extension or (2) you file Forms 990-BL, 6069, or 8870, group returns, or a composite or consolidated Form 990-T. Instead, you must submit the fully completed and signed page 2 (Part II) of Form 8868. For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.
