 National Church Residences Foundation is a not-for-profit corporation certified as a 501(C)(3) charitable organization. In 1961, the Reverend John R. Glenn and four Ohio Presbyterian churches formed the parent company of National Church Residences out of a Christian commitment to serve older adults' housing, social, and human needs. National Church Residences Foundation was spun off from the parent company of National Church Residences in 2005 to separate out the philanthropic function of that Ohio not-for-profit corporation. Its primary function is to provide charity care for the residents of communities owned and operated by National Church Residences. As of 2009, the parent company of National Church Residences owns/manages 300+ affordable senior and family housing communities in 27 states and Puerto Rico, serving more than 22,000 residents. In addition, NCR operates thirteen healthcare entities (Skilled nursing, Assisted living, Home Health and Adult Daycare) in Ohio. NCR supports and is affiliated with several of the nation's leading senior, social, and health care advocacy organizations, including the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (AAHSA), the National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA), the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes for the Aging (AOPHA). The mission of National Church Residences is to provide quality housing and care at affordable prices in communities of caring persons. Our ministry is national in scope and originates from a Christian commitment of service to older adults, which began in 1961. While our ministry has been targeted primarily toward older adults, we have special concern for low- and moderate-income seniors, persons with disabilities, and low- and moderate-income families. We are committed to expanding our services in the areas of assisted living, nursing homes, full-service retirement communities, and to the development of resources necessary to support these facilities. We also plan thoughtful growth in the area of affordable family housing. While we are committed to professionalism in the management of property, programs, and human resources, we are equally committed to compassion for the people we serve.
