The Foundation for a Christian Civilization, Inc. ("FCC") has adopted the following guidelines for making grants (scholarships included) to organizations and individuals:

Scholarships to individuals:

Selection of grantees will be made on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis using criteria reasonably related to the purpose of the grant, including the merits of the proposal, if any, credentials of the potential grantee, the relationship of the proposal to the Foundation's program activities, projects or areas of concern and its priority in relation to other demands on Foundation funds.

Where the Foundation makes grants that are earmarked for the use of another grantee organization, the inquiry will encompass both the recipient organization and the organization for which the funds are earmarked.

Grants to organizations that have not been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 will only be made for specific charitable projects in furtherance of the Foundation's tax-exempt purposes.

In no event, however, shall any persons or other entity dealing with the directors or officers be obligated to inquire into the authority of the directors and officers to enter into and consummate any contract, transaction, or other action.

11. Compensation. Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services as such, but by resolution of the Board a fixed reasonable sum or expenses of attendance, if any, or both, may be allowed for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board. All members of the corporation shall be deemed to have expressly consented and agreed that upon such dissolution or winding up the affairs of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets of the corporation, after all debts have been satisfied, then remaining in the hands of the Board of Directors shall be distributed, transferred, conveyed, delivered, and paid over, in such amounts as the Board of Directors may determine or as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon application of the Board of Directors, exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, literary, non-profit, or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Article XI

Investments

The corporation shall have the right to retain all or any part of any securities or property acquired by it in whatever manner, and to invest and reinvest any funds held by it, according to the judgment of the Board of Directors, without being restricted to the class of investments which a director is or may hereafter be permitted by law to make or any similar restriction, provided, however, that no action shall be taken by or on behalf of the corporation if such action is a prohibited transaction or would result in the denial of the tax exemption under Section 503 or Section 504 of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Article XII

The Board of Directors shall have power to make, alter, amend, and repeal the bylaws of the corporation by affirmative vote of a majority of the Board, provided, however, that the action is proposed at a regular or special meeting of the Board and adopted at a subsequent regular meeting, except as otherwise provided by law. All bylaws made by the Board of Directors may be altered, amended or repealed by the members.

2. By members. The bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed at any meeting of members of the corporation by a majority vote of all the members, represented either in person or by proxy, provided that the proposed action is inserted in the notice of such meeting.

Article XIII

Exempt Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, no member, director, officer, employee, or representative of this corporation shall take any action or carry on any activity by or on behalf of the corporation not permitted to be taken or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
