Primary Exempt Purpose Statement:

National Philanthropic Trust (NPT) is an independent public charity dedicated to increasing philanthropy in our society. NPT promotes philanthropy through a variety of charitable giving vehicles for individuals and organizations including donor advised funds, supporting organizations and field of interest funds. Through these vehicles, NPT makes grants to charitable organizations that are approved by NPT's Board of Trustees.

NPT administers approximately 1058 donor advised funds, directly with donors and their families and in partnership with financial institutions including the NPT is supported by three Type I supporting organizations (SOs). They each support NPT's charitable purpose through grantmaking in accordance with their mission or exempt purpose. These SOs include the Dr. Robert C. And Veronica Atkins Foundation that supports nutrition and health, the Foundational Questions in Physics and Cosmology Institute that supports research and programs in physics and cosmology, and the NPT SO that supports a variety of charitable causes.

NPT operates five field of interest funds which gather charitable contributions from many donors. These funds support organizations identified by NPT's grantmaking professionals and leading experts. They include the Back in Action Fund, the Children in Crisis Fund, the globalislocal Partnership Fund, the 9/11 Children's Fund, and the NPT Breast Cancer Fund.

NPT also manages the NPT Breast Cancer 3-Day, an LLC which produces a series of three-day, sixty-mile walks that raise charitable funds to support the research, education, prevention and treatment of breast cancer.

Additionally, NPT has a rich depth of knowledge on philanthropy, and seeks to expand donors' knowledge of charitable giving through its publications, websites, speaking engagements and grantmaking services.

Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return

OMB No. 1545-1709

▶ File a separate application for each return.

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box ☒
- If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form).

Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868.Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed).A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension - check this box and complete Part I only ☐

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns.

Electronic Filing (e-file). Generally, you can electronically file Form 8868 if you want a 3-month automatic extension of time to file one of the returns noted below (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T). However, you cannot file Form 8868 electronically if (1) you want the additional (not automatic) 3-month extension or (2) you file Forms 990-BL, 6069, or 8870, group returns, or a composite or consolidated Form 990-T. Instead, you must submit the fully completed and signed page 2 (Part II) of Form 8868. For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.
