Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 2 b		The University engaged RuffaloCODY to manage the Telefund program. The company hires UD students to make the calls to donors, fashions the scripts that the student callers use and follows up with mailings to donors such as reminders and pledge acknowledgements. The contract with RuffaloCODY specifies an annual fee for these services and also for mailing expenses. The University paid $21,190 in mailing costs last fiscal year. All funds raised through this program come directly to the University. The vendor does not receive any money from the donors, nor are they compensated based on a percentage of the money raised.
