Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

The organization sponsors various retreats and workshops providing an educational environment and community for its participants

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 363,330 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Council in Schools- brings Council into schools in order to provide a practice that addresses relationship (connection) and relevance (meaning) in education Strives to encourage the development of true empathy and respect for one another in order to cultivate mutual understanding More than 60 public and independent schools and over 6,000 students are involved every year Adult members of the school communities are also involved and given council training- teachers, counselors, administrators, and parents- so that they might lead student councils or continue the practice on their own

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 319,748 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Land-based programs- teaching the practice of speaking and listening from the heart Through compassionate, heartfelt expression and empathic, non-judgmental listening, Council inspires a non-hierarchical form of deep communication that reveals a group's vision and purpose Council offers effective means of resolving conflicts and for discovering the deeper, often unexpressed needs of individuals and organizations Council provides a comprehensive means for co-visioning and making decisions in a group context The Foundation hosted over 25 large Council programs during the year and over 100 individual and small-group retreats For youth programs- allowing youth to mark times of significance while providing a rich background that helps to frame these experiences Furthermore, these experiences are grounded within group interaction and relationship, which encourages youth to connect with each other while exploring the depths of their personal selves For one to five day retreats, youths participate in Council, ropes course activities, art, personal introspection, rites of passage, land-work projects, and they have the opportunity to live together in a village-style format By combining these activities in a unique way, the Foundation hopes that students will explore the significant transitions of their lives, clarify personal values, explore issues of diversity, and deepen their relationship to nature, themselves, and each other There were about 50 youth retreats during the year

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 275,403 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Teaching, promoting, and supporting attentive listening and authentic expression through council trainings and programs in a wide variety of businesses, organizations, and communities- serving at-risk youth, homeless individuals, prisoners, foster families, and the elderly, among other underserved populations, social service staff, and health workers During the year, there were over 10 council trainings led by 18 different council trainers

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O)

(Expenses $ 45,732 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	On July 1, 2009, the Foundation adopted the recognition requirements for uncertain income tax positions as required by generally accepted accounting principles, with no cumulative effect adjustment required. Income tax benefits or expenses are recognized for income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, only when it is determined that the income tax position will more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The Foundation has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and State of California. The Foundation believes that income tax filing positions will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse effect on the Foundation's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. Accordingly, the Foundation has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain tax positions at June 30, 2014. The Foundation's policy is to classify income tax related interest and penalties as interest expense on the financial statements. The Foundation's 2012, 2011, and 2010 tax years remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and the California Franchise Tax Board.
