MISSION STATEMENT

Goucher College is committed to providing the best in liberal arts and sciences education for men and women and, through its programs and its environment, to preparing them for responsible active roles in society

Except for the extensions in 1986 of our commitment to include men as well as women, our basic mission has not changed in more than a century. What has changed periodically is our way of fulfilling that mission in light of changing societal circumstances and new advances in knowledge and technology. Now, as Goucher looks toward the future, our paramount goal is to bring to fulfillment a vision of what the College should be and should do in a new century and a new era in American education.

In support of this mission, the College accomplished the following:

Provided Undergraduate Liberal Arts and Science education to more than 1,200 students

Provided Graduate education to more than 1,400 students

Provided credit and non-credit continuing studies course work for more than 900 individuals
