Neighborhood Services

This program is responsible for the operation and maintenance of 21 neighborhood libraries and mobile library services, and for pickup and delivery of materials from those locations. Nearly 1.3 million users visited neighborhood libraries in 2017 to borrow materials, engage in over 826,000 reference transactions, and attend over 6,300 programs attended by nearly 102,000 people. Neighborhood libraries also serve as a gathering place for the community, hosting 1,950 meetings attended by over 26,000 members of the community.

State Library Resource Center

This program is responsible for the operation and maintenance of the Central Library which also serves as the Maryland State Library Resource Center (SLRC). Unlike other states, Maryland does not have a State Library to provide interlibrary loan, reference State depository, and other specialized services.

SLRC circulated more than 296,000 items, conducted over 767,000 reference transactions and held 1,208 programs attended by 23,100 members of the community. SLRC also serves as a gathering place for the community. In support of the State role, the Library also operates Sailor, an Internet-based network of the Maryland Library Community. Through this network, all residents of Maryland can have free access to the Internet through their local library system. Last year, Sailor databases were searched nearly 13.6 million times. SLRC's statewide responsibility for the coordination of the interlibrary loan resulted in the processing of approximately 80,000 transactions.

Part VI #11b

The Library Board of Directors delegates responsibility for review and approval of submission of the Form 990 to the Finance Committee of the Board. Once the Form 990 is approved by the Finance Committee for submission, a copy is provided for all Board members. The actions of the Finance Committee are approved by the Board of Trustees at its annual meeting.

Part VI #12c

The Library follows conflict of interest guidelines of the Baltimore City Board of Ethics. Certain employees are designated to file annual disclosure statements in April of each year based on their duties that meet the Board of Ethics guidelines. The Director of Administrative Services is responsible for providing a list to the Board of Ethics of employees required to file disclosure statements. The Director of Administrative Services also provides designated employees instructions on how to file their disclosure statements. The Board of Ethics monitors compliance and contacts designated employees if they have not filed their disclosure statements by the due date. Similarly, the Library's Board of Trustees and Directors file annual conflict of interest statements each September. Compliance is tracked by the Special Assistant to the Library's Chief Executive Officer.

Part VI #15c

The Library's Board of Trustees performs an annual evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer as directed by Board policy. The evaluation reviews performance against a mutually agreed upon work plan. Compensation is reviewed on an annual basis with comparisons made to the compensation of other non-profit agency CEOs, comparable Library CEO positions around the country, and local government agency heads.

Part VI #19

The Library's governing documents and conflict of interest policy are made available to the public upon request. The Library's audited Annual Financial Statements are made public through the City of Baltimore's Board of Estimates. Copies are also sent to the State of Maryland Secretary of State. All of these matters are discussed at Library Board meetings, which are open to the public. Once minutes of those meetings are approved by the Board, they are sent to the Library's Maryland Department where they are available for inspection by the public.
