Case management services help participants assess their situation, determine the root causes of the housing instability, and establish a goal plan to address the issues. Additional supportive services including financial management, education or employment services may also be provided. Following assistance, the case manager continues to work with the participant on accomplishing the goal plan. Participants are tracked at 1 month, 3 months, and 6 months following assistance.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 1,227,864 including grants of $ 690,162) (Revenue $)

Housing Services provide a range of services for homeless and near homeless families. CFR operates both short-term (90 days), transitional (up to 24 months), and permanent housing programs for homeless families (minimum of one adult and one child) meeting the HUD definition of homelessness. Operating as an alternative to congregate shelters, homeless families are placed in individual apartments where they have 24 hours of safe, secure housing and maintain a higher degree of normalcy and self-reliance in their everyday routines. Participants are required to actively participate in the case management process and develop life and economic skills to increase their capacity to obtain and retain permanent housing. A variety of support services are provided to help stabilize families while they are in the program including assistance with child care, food, transportation, employment, education, mental and/or physical health needs. Permanent, affordable housing for low income families is offered through a tenant based rental assistance program (TBRA). Form 990 Part XII Line 2c	The process for selecting auditors has not changed from the previous year.
Form 990 Part VIII Line 6a	The real property rented by The Center for Family Resources is excluded from the definition of debt-financed property, thus the income from the property is not unrelated business income. Under IRC Sec 514(b)(1) if substantially all of a property's use is directly related to the exercise or performance of an organization's exempt purpose, it is not debt-financed property. Based on a comparison of time used for rental purposes versus used for exempt purposes and based on the portion used for exempt purposes and all purposes, substantially all of a property's use is directly related to the exercise or performance of an organization's exempt purpose. The Center for Family Resources rental income consists largely of short-time use rentals such as by rental of rooms by the hour.
