The organization unites its members in the bonds of Fraternity, Benevolence and Charity. This is accomplished through a year round schedule of social and recreational activities for the members and their families, estimated to be about 623 members and their families

The 990 form is reviewed by the members as part of a regular membership meeting and the 990 is available for review by request in the Administrators office at any time.

Other than directly to our members or to a government agency our records are only available by request for the public, during the tax year.

The Lodge does not compensate any officer other than the Administrator for their services. The Administrator is authorized by Moose International to be reimbursed an amount not to exceed 10 percent of the annual dues collected

Line 24 of Balance sheet reflects money still owed to members for the sewage system project.

Line 8 of Part XI reflects a Journal Entry made to increase our building/property fixed asset account to make it a more realistic amount.
