Attachment to Form 990-PF, Part XV, Line 2
Information regarding contribution, grant, gift loan, scholarship, etc., programs
FYE 1/31/09

The Foundation has two separate programs; the matching gifts program, and a program for direct Foundation contributions.

MATCHING GIFTS PROGRAM:

Part XV; Line 2(a):

The donor and recipient institution must complete an application form via the internet.
(www.employeeconnection.net)

Part XV; Line 2(b):

The donor completes Part A of the matching gift form and forwards it to the eligible institution with his / her gift. An authorized officer at the eligible institution should complete and sign Part B of the form, and then send the entire form to the Program Administrator at the above address. The Program Administrator will review the contribution to determine its eligibility for a matching gift.

The Foundation matching gift application is on the website for employees to apply for a match through the website (www.employeeconnection.net). The employee would complete a donor profile and then fill out the Part A form online, print it and submit to the non-profit along with their money to be matched. The non-profit would complete Part B and return to the Matching Gifts Administrator for review and processing.

The Earning for Learning Form is on the website (www.employeeconnection.net) as well. The employee would complete their information, print the form and submit to the school for verification. The Earning for Learning Administrator would verify the information and process for payment.

Part XV; Line 2(c):

The Foundation will match eligible contribution amounts that are actually paid, not merely pledged for payment, in the current calendar year, which are certified by an officer of the recipient organization and received by the Matching Gifts Administrator by the required deadlines of December 31 of each year.

Part XV; Line 2(d):

Most organizations that are classified as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code will qualify for a matching gift. An organization with its 501(c)(3) designation must also be formed, located, and perform its services in the United States. Eligible organizations are typically grouped in four general categories, as follows.

Arts and Culture
Education
Health and Welfare
Community / Civic Causes

DIRECT CONTRIBUTIONS

Part XV; Line 2(a):

Requests to Macy's Foundation, or one of its divisions, are made via the internet.
(www.macysinc.com)

FYE 1/31/09

Part XV; Line 2(b):

Requests to Macy's Foundation must be from a non-profit organization with a 501(c)(3) tax status. The following will need to be included with the request and must be on file before the request can be reviewed by the Macy's Foundation. Funding for grants to eligible recipients will be made through the Macy's Foundation as part of the online application and will be verified by the Foundation:

- (a) Copy of IRS 501(c)(3) certification, showing the tax identification number of the applicant;
- (b) List of organization's trustees and officers;
- (c) List of other major supporters (corporate, foundation and individual);
- (d) Description of funding request;
- (e) Operating budget;
- (f) Brief background history -- number of years in service, clientele serviced annually, location, general description of service,
- (g) Any documents filed with state regulatory agency

The Foundation application is on the website for non-profits to apply for funding. The website address (www.macysinc.com) is given to the non-profit with instruction to click on the Community/ Foundation icon. This explains the giving guidelines and how to navigate the non-profit link for the application. A valid IRS 501(c)(3) number would access the application. The non-profit would submit the application to the Corporate Office software where it is verified with each division's list of invited non-profits. It would be confirmed by the division for recommended approval. Once applications were reviewed and approved by Trustees, they are approved and paid.

Part XV; Line 2(c):

Corporate requests are reviewed quarterly by trustees of the Macy's Foundation. Division requests are reviewed periodically by contributions committees that meet to consider community involvement and giving priorities at the division level and divisions recommend contributions to the Foundation.

Part XV; Line 2(d):

Macy's Foundation generally focuses its direct giving on national and regional organizations.

No gifts shall be made to individuals, or to religious organizations to be used solely for religious purposes. Gifts may be made to religious organizations when the purpose of the contribution is clearly educational, philanthropic, or cultural.
