Phoenix Song

It takes a great deal of self-confidence and determination to decide to pursue an education in performing arts. Many people believe that actors, singers and musicians become successful because of luck or connections, but at the Phoenix Foundation we understand that it also takes dedication and hard work in addition to talent. It also takes money! We believe in your ability to make your dreams come true and we want to help.

For our purposes we define performing arts as instrumental or vocal performance, acting, stagecraft or musical theater. These disciplines are all very competitive and rigorous. In most cases students must audition to be accepted to the program of study in each of these fields. Freshmen and sophomores applying for this scholarship do not need to be accepted to the program of study but must demonstrate that they are pursuing their field of study by submitting grade reports at the end of each term.

Students must complete an essay of no more than 500 words. The prompt for this essay is "How has your participation in the performing arts impacted your life?" You can draw on your personal experience, your hopes and aspirations, why the performing arts inspire you or explain why you have chosen your particular field of study. If you have already received this scholarship and are re-applying, please use this prompt: Reflect on the year you attended a post secondary institution on a Phoenix Foundation scholarship – What did you learn about yourself? How has this opportunity changed your outlook on the future?

If you are applying for funds for your freshman year you must submit the letter of reference from a current instructor in your chosen field of study. For example, if you are planning to pursue an education in vocal performance please submit the letter from your current chorus teacher or private vocal instructor, if you are planning to pursue an education in instrumental music please submit the letter from your current band or orchestra director or private instrument teacher, if you are planning to pursue an education in acting or musical theater please submit the letter from your current drama teacher or community based arts organization.

All applicants must have proof of acceptance to a four year university, a 3.5 un-weighted high school GPA or 3.0 college GPA, and be willing to submit all requested documents including, but not limited to proof of acceptance to a four year university, reference letter, essay, transcripts and tax documentation if asked. Scholarships will be awarded between $1,000 and $33,000 at the discretion of the selection committee.
