F99Z_P03_S00_L28	Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line (28-31)	Word Radio Educational Foundation was organized to provide a platform to establish non-commercial educational Christian radio broadcasting to communities within the reach of its radio broadcasting facilities which would proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and teach Judeo Christian principles for life Word Radio continues its outreach through WSEW 88.7 FM broadcasting from Sanford, Maine, to points in southern Maine, seacoast and inner regions of New Hampshire, and northeastern Massachusetts along the I-95 corridor to Boston Word Radio brings together its three other radio stations in a separate but similar format as Community Life Radio, operating WRKJ 88.5 FM in Gorham, Maine, reaching into the Westbrook-Portland area, WMTP 91.1 FM to the Mount Washington Valley region, continues to develop WMEK 88.3 FM in Kennebunkport, Maine Funding to support the ministry of Word Radio and its broadcasting outlets comes through the generosity of individual donors, participation by program producers, and partnerships with churches, ministries and interested businesses that share the goal of providing Christian programming to their communities A Christmas Gifts and Year End Giving Campaign was undertaken in November and December by on-air spots and updates with $21,000 Without any disruption in broadcasting daily format this was gratefully received and we give thanks to a small base of regular supporters and many donors who respond when prompted by God to do so and we receive His provision through them Because our listeners also support many of the programs heard on Word Radio and Community Life Radio, their contributions help to continue the excellent biblical teaching heard each day on the stations Because many program producers share back with the stations by returning a percentage of the donations directly attributable to the listeners of the radio stations, then there is again a broad base of supporters who give indirectly as well to the work of Christian broadcasting heard on all of our stations There is also a base of impact partners who participate in the financial support and includes churches, ministries and Christian businesses who believe in the eternal effect of broadcasting the Word of God over the airwaves The 24-hour format of radio broadcasting presented by Word Radio via WSEW, and on Community Life Radio - WRKJ and WMTP, continues to be primarily religious, utilizing, for the most part, national programs produced by Christian program producers and Christian organizations and churches The 24-hour format of WSEW continues to be available for streaming from the internet To reach the spiritual needs of listeners, Biblical instruction has been abundant in the form of sermons, dramas and special programming from a variety of speakers and program producers Many programs aired on all stations are evangelistic in nature, but all programs faithfully present the written Word of God to the listeners of all Word Radio stations To assist listeners in being informed about the culture and community, listeners have been treated to conservative, Christian world-view talk shows on relevant subjects with opportunities for listeners to call in with comments and/or questions This has included Point of View Radio Talk Show Monday to Friday afternoons aired live on WSEW 88.7 and by recording on WRKJ-WMTP, In the Market each weekday with Janet Parshall brings current events and many timely topics to the listeners who can also participate by calling on topics of their interest Midday Connection on WRKJ-WMTP is aired each weekday afternoon bringing relevant topics primarily to women in the listening audience Magazine format programs provided relevant spiritual and motivational topics for individuals and families alike, including Dr. James Dobson's Family Talk, Focus on the Family, Haven Today, and Songtime USA Saturday magazine format programs include Building Relationships with Dr. Gary Smalley, Songtime USA from Cape Cod airing twice daily on both formats, and Breakpoint from the Charles Colson Center World Magazine continues to provide their weekly one hour program heard on all the stations at least once each weekend, and also has daily short feature news segments Straight Talk USA with host Tom Zimmerman is aired two times a week on Community Life Radio providing to the listeners commentary about happenings in the State of Maine and the nation Inspirational music aired from 1 AM to 5 AM on WSEW, WRKJ and WMTP as an outreach to the working audience as well as the awake and awakening audience Late Saturday afternoons and evenings were devoted to music of varying genres, from Christian oldies, to classic oldies, the Pat Boone show, bluegrass, a locally produced daily devotional and music program and contemporary Indie style Sunday programming included music for varying tastes, such as choral presentations by the National Christian Choir, the classic Sounds of Joy, the Gaither Homecoming and more Christian oldies WRKJ-WMTP aired a greater percentage of locally originated Christian music than WSEW during its broadcast day throughout this year Locally produced music hour featuring the 'music of your life' aired on WRKJ and WMTP each weekday morning Moody Broadcasting Network upgraded their delivery system and a new piece of equipment was purchased to make it possible to store forward programming files as well as integrate with the AMB-OS delivery system of programming files Installation was completed on the STL delivery system of the broadcast signal to WRKJ from the studio link via the Sanford facility and on to the Gorham site The project for the redundant operation of WSEW 88.7 FM was well implemented with a new backup transmitter and a switching project moving towards completion Local area hourly weather forecasts and national news broadcasts are provided in the 24/7 format of all stations A calendar of community events is aired twice daily on WSEW and is unique to the Word Radio listening audience It is offered free of charge to other non-profit organizations in the listening areas Public service announcements rotate through the daily schedule of WRKJ-WMTP WSEW, WRKJ and WMTP are active participants in the Emergency Alert System as EAS broadcast outlets and broadcast all regularly required tests and remains technically ready and able to provide all broadcasting services during an actual emergency The social community can stay connected to Word Radio via its website www.wordradio.net and the Facebook page of WSEW 88.7 FM Through the outreach of the Word Radio station facilities, many listeners have been, and will continue to be, touched by the powerful preaching of God's Word, the inspiring messages and music, and for the interested listener, tuning in the for the first time, an intriguing introduction into the Gospel of Jesus Christ, His love, mercy and grace and the precepts of Christianity A continued attention to the reliable delivery of the broadcast signal will be given in the coming months, with equipment upgrades, signal delivery via studio link transmission, and continued resources to provide the quality Christian programming heard 24/7
