| Lobbying Expenses | Part II-B        | The Corporation may on occasion contact its employees with a voluntary opportunity to participate in the conversation to protect against cuts in Federal funding that would have an adverse impact on the Corporation and its Affiliates as well as the pace of medical advances, the economy, and the global competitiveness of the Corporation. The Corporation may on occasion review proposed legislation for the purpose of determining the effect upon its tax-exempt purposes. The Corporation may on occasion also appear before a legislative committee, confer with legislators or otherwise attempt to influence legislation. However, it will not participate, in any way, in political campaigns. The Corporation's involvement in legislative activities constitutes an insubstantial part of its activities. |

| Conflict of Interest Policy | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | For purposes of its annual tax filing, Partners HealthCare has an annual questionnaire process for obtaining information on interests that may give rise to conflicts from all officers, directors, trustees and key employees. In addition, in connection with Partners' Conflict of Interest Policy, the Partners Office for Interactions with Industry and Office of General Counsel work together to periodically distribute, collect and review disclosure statements from these individuals. The information on each such disclosure is reviewed by each individual's supervisor (who in the case of directors and trustees is deemed to consist of the Chairman of the Board and the entity's President/CEO, who review the disclosures with the assistance of the General Counsel or attorney representatives of his office). Partners has a Conflict of Interest Policy that applies to all entities in the system, and which is designed to (1) identify relationships and conduct that create either conflicts of interest or conflicts of commitment, (2) establish a system for disclosing and resolving potential conflicts, and (3) ensure that transactions are negotiated at arm's length and that payments are at fair market value. Under our policy, when a conflict arises, the individual associated with the outside entity in question must provide full disclosure and completely recuse him/herself from any institutional decision-making about the transaction. In appropriate circumstances, (i) the Corporation must consider at least two alternative disinterested competitive proposals, or must determine that two such competitive proposals do not exist or that it would be impractical to elicit or consider such competitive proposals, and (ii) the Corporation must determine that, notwithstanding the apparent conflict, the transaction is fair and reasonable to the Corporation and is in the best interests of the Corporation. A written record must be made of these determinations. Furthermore, transactions that present particularly significant conflicts are reviewed by an independent committee of Partners, which review is also documented. Conflicts of commitment by the Partners President and CEO are addressed by requiring outside activities to be approved by the Partners Board Chair. |

| Process for Determining Compensation | Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b | The organization has a board level compensation committee that reviews and approves the compensation for all listed officers and key employees except the Secretary. The committee is comprised of members of the board who are not employed by the organization, and no member may participate in the review and approval of compensation if the member has a conflict of interest with respect to that compensation arrangement. The committee relies on data, provided by an independent compensation consultant, which includes comparable compensation for similarly qualified persons, in functionally comparable positions, at similarly situated organizations. The deliberations and decisions of the committee are documented in minutes of the meeting. This review process occurs on an annual basis. |
