Return Reference	Explanation
Intended Uses of Endowment Funds	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Investment income earned on the NEH endowment funds is to be used for support of humanities activities in education, public programming, scholarly research, and preservation and is temporarily restricted until used for that purpose. Investment income earned on the Mellon endowment fund is to be used for general unrestricted purposes.
Liability for Uncertain Tax Position (ASC 740)	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 IREX is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and has been classified by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization that is not a private foundation. Under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), and applicable state regulations, IREX is exempt from taxes except for unrelated business income. For financial statement purposes IREX is required to record a liability for any material tax position taken which does not meet the minimum thresholds of 'more likely than not' to be successful under regulatory challenge. No provision for income taxes has been recorded in 2015 and 2014 since management believes there is no material unrelated business income or material uncertain tax positions requiring the recognition of a liability. IREX believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations prior to 2012.

Procedure for Monitoring Use of Grant Funds Outside US	Schedule F, Part I, Line 2 IREX requires programmatic reporting from all grantees Periodic financial reporting is required from all grantees who receive cost reimbursable awards Programmatic reports are reviewed by IREX to ensure planned activities are undertaken and that all work is within the scope of the award. Financial reports are reviewed to ensure that grant funds are used for the purposes intended. Site visits by IREX staff are encouraged and taken whenever practical. Additional oversight measures including more frequent reporting, audits, physical evidence of performance, etc., are employed when normal oversight indicates areas of concern. As part of its headquarters oversight function, IREX has a Financial Review program for its field offices. This program is intended to assess the soundness of the financial management practices in our field offices, as well as to identify and resolve any related issues. For this purpose, a team of financial experts within IREX as well as external consultants conduct periodic reviews of our field offices. Field offices are selected for review based on a risk assessment that is performed by the Field Finance Manager and the CFO on a yearly basis, over the past three years a number of IREX country offices benefited from this program.

Return Reference	Explanation
Housing allowance or residence for personal use	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Housing allowances are provided to expatriate employees located in IREX overseas field office programs. The provision of the housing allowance is consistent with or lower than what is commonly provided by the US government and other international development agencies when placing employees in overseas locations. Housing allowances are determined on a case by case basis. Factors considered include the cost of housing in the specific country, US government housing allowance guidelines and negotiations with the expatriate employee to be assigned to the location. Employees serving at overseas locations included among the highest compensated employees listed on the compensation schedule received housing allowance benefits which were included in their reported compensation. No housing allowance benefits are provided to directors, officers, or key employees.
Health or social club dues or initiation fees	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a IREX pays the annual dues for the President to conduct business and meetings with board members at a local social club. All IREX business related expenses incurred by the President at the social club are reviewed and authorized before reimbursement is made to the President. Only business related expenses are reimbursed by IREX.
Written policy regarding payment or reimbursement	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1b As stated, housing allowances are determined on a case by case basis. Other Expense reimbursements are subject to review and compliance with IREX travel and expense reimbursement policies.
Approval by the Board or Compensation Committee	Schedule J, Part I, Line 3 The President's annual salary increase and award are determined by the chairperson of the Board of Governors in consultation with the members of the executive committee. Annual salary increases and awards for other officers and key employees are determined by the President based on the established institutional salary increase ranges for all DC paid employees. Any officer or key employee awards are determined by the President within the parameters of an employee award plan adopted by the Board of Governors. Finally all other officer and key employee salary increases and awards (if any) are reviewed by the President with the chairperson of the Board.
