Supplement to Question 28 - Ongoing litigation

The law clinic serves as the attorneys for the American Tradition Institute. The billable hours in these matters is shared by the FME Law Clinic and ATI, the division made on a case by case basis.

1. ATI v. UVA. This is a FOIA case that will establish what the Virginia law allows universities to keep secret from the public. It also addresses whether a FOI Act unconstitutionally abridges an alleged free speech right to academic freedom. The court acknowledged the validity of $201,000 costs and fees to FME Law, but has not yet awarded them. The matter is now before the VA Supreme Court.

2. Occoquan Watershed Coalition v. EPA. This case raised the question as to whether EPA violated the 10th amendment rights of Virginia and Fairfax County when establishing a water quality criterion that would require the total local governmental budget for implementation. The matter was settled due to the outcome of other litigation. No costs or fees were awarded.

3. ATI v. NASA. A FOIA case seeking ethics records for a NASA employee who had over $2 million in outside income. Because NASA refused to release the records, the Office of Government Ethics had to intervene and order them to release the records, placing the entire federal government on notice that they must properly file these ethics reports and release them when sought under FOIA.

FME Law received $10,887.50 in costs and fees.
