part III program service descriptions		Emergency Shelter for Women & Children (ESWC) is PADV's core program, emergency shelter for women and children offers 24-hour emergency shelter, 24-hour crisis line response, crisis stabilization support, case management, support groups and more. PADV's two emergency domestic violence (DV) shelters are the only state-certified DV shelters in the city of Atlanta and Gwinnett County. The program provides a safe haven for battered women and their children and offers shelter, basic necessities, food, clothing, support groups, case management and referrals for housing, childcare, mental/medical healthcare, transportation and job opportunities. Often the first link to safety, the crisis line provides safety planning, information, and support to callers in immediate danger, and to those with questions about people who may be battered. Additionally, the crisis line offers referrals to community resources available throughout the state of Georgia. During FY 2013, PADV housed 566 women and children and provided 22,453 bed nights. We fielded 12,091 calls on the crisis line. Community-Based Domestic Violence Services (CBDV) PADV provides an array of community-based services for survivors who may not need shelter but do need support to escape a violent relationship and remain violence-free. Services include case management, advocacy, public benefits assessment and assistance, support groups and referrals for housing, childcare, mental/medical healthcare, transportation and job opportunities. Support groups are offered across Metro Atlanta and provide a safe place for women who have left violent relationships or who continue to live with their abuser to come together and share experiences, offer encouragement, support, and generate ideas on ways to live violence free. As part of case management, program staff interview and assess domestic violence survivors for eligibility for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) and provide service coordination. Domestic violence survivors receive a temporary waiver from certain TANF requirements without losing financial assistance. In FY 2013, the community outreach program served 5,136 clients. Supportive Housing Programs The supportive housing program is designed to assist battered women in their efforts to gain independence from their abusers. Specifically, the program offers rental, utility, childcare, employment, legal and educational financial assistance as well as transitional housing to battered women working to live independently. The program offers not only rental assistance, but also educational/job training financial assistance, utility assistance, legal advocacy, case management, support groups and referrals for housing, childcare, mental/medical healthcare, transportation and job opportunities. Participants pay 30% of their income to an escrow account, which is given back to them upon program exit for deposit on permanent housing or other needs. During FY 2013, PADV had 9 units in Fulton County and 9 units in Gwinnett County with 88 women and their children participating.
