Description of Program Service One

Developed and disseminated educational materials; operated local support groups to help with tourette syndrome; stimulated and funded research. Specifically, chapter membership (members of National Tourette Syndrome Association [TSA] are automatically members of the Florida chapter) totals approximately 1000. The chapter produces a Newsletter for members three times per year and also distributes educational materials, for teachers, parents and health care professionals, supplied by National TSA. Approximately 120 tourette syndrome patients and family members attend a Family Weekend each February. Paid staff and volunteers carried out approximately 90 "In Service" training sessions for teachers throughout the State of Florida. The chapter funds approximately 13 Support Groups throughout the State, most of which generally meet monthly.
