Form 990, Part III, Line 4 Program services reported in this section do not include expenses for political campaign intervention or other activities of the organization that do not directly further its purposes according to current IRS guidance. In contrast, some such expenses are reported as "program service" expenditures rather than management or fundraising expenditures in Part IX, given the slightly broader definition of program service there Form 990, Part V, Line 2a The organization contracted with a third-party corporation to payroll taxes and provided W-2s to staff members. The number of employees reported here is the number of staff members provided by the third-party corporation

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 3 The organization used Insperty, a third-party employee leasing company, but all significant decisions remained under the control of the organization's officers and directors. Amounts paid to Insperty for the organization's staff are reported in aggregate in Part VII B, and to the extent attributable to particular employees it is also reported in Part VII A Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 8b The organization did not have any committees

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11a The Form 990 is reviewed by the President of the organization in consultation with accounting and legal professionals as appropriate

Thereafter, a penultimate draft and then a final copy is circulated to all of the members of the organization's governing body prior to filing. The penultimate draft and the final copy both include the full Form 990 submitted to the IRS, except for confidential portions (which are available for members of the governing body to review on premises).

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c The organization asks board members, officers, employees, and volunteers annually to disclose interests that may give rise to potential conflicts of interest under the Conflicts of Interest Policy. It does so in conjunction with asking for information about arrangements that may need to be disclosed on the Form 990

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 17. The organization is a social welfare organization and is not a charitable organization under the definition of many state statutes. The organization therefore does not register under state laws pertaining to charitable solicitation or similar laws except where it determines that state law is meant to apply to social welfare organizations.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19. The organization does not provide copies of its governing documents, conflict of interest policy or financial statements to the public.

However, financial statements are provided to certain states where required for solicitation registration purposes.

Form 990, Part VII, Section A. As noted previously, the organization's staff were employed by a third party employee leasing company rather than being employed directly by the organization. However, per the instructions, as the common law employer of these employees, the organization has reported their compensation in Part VII as if it employed them directly.

Amounts reported in columns (D) and (F) represent the organization's third party staffing company's estimates of the amount of its charge to the organization allocable to employee compensation and employee benefits, respectively. That charge may not correspond to amounts actually paid to the individuals by the employment company.
